DAY 2 | MELBOURNE

Following breakfast, we enjoy a Hidden Secrets of Melbourne walking tour. Explore the city's signature lanes, arcades and architecture hearing historical tales of Melbourne along the way. Many of Melbourne's points of interest are dotted along the Yarra River, so a cruise is the perfect and most relaxing way to see them. Lunch today is in the art deco inspired '1932' located in the architecturally iconic Manchester Unity building. Continuing on to the Immigration Museum, we learn through photographs, historical objects and personal stories how those that came across the seas helped to shape this nation from the gold rush days of the 1840s to the present day.

Overnight: InterContinental Melbourne

DAY 3 | MELBOURNE - SORRENTO

Leaving the city behind, we head south. On arrival, we board the Arthur's Seat Eagle, an aerial gondola that will take us on a journey of flight to the highest point of the Mornington Peninsula offering stunning views across Port Phillip Bay, towards the Melbourne city skyline and beyond.

After lunch at a local winery, we will soak in nature's kaleidoscope at Peony Estate located in the lush green volcanic hills of Red Hill. A family owned property since 1886, today the land has evolved into lush fields of peonies, dahlias and lillies where fruit orchards once stood.

Check-in to the award-winning Peppers Moonah Links Resort to enjoy the landscaped gardens and rolling green hill views from your stylish deluxe accommodation. This evening we celebrate Christmas Eve dinner at a local restaurant.

Overnight: Peppers Moonah Links Resort

DAY 4 | CHRISTMAS DAY

Today you will spend a relaxing Christmas Day with new friends. For those clients wishing to attend church services, there will be the opportunity to do so.
